When you make a Sonic game that's better than Sonic games have been for the last 15 years, you have Freedom Planet.. Honestly I don't know where to start. The only thing I have to say is that THIS is the kind of Sonic game I like.

The thing is it began as fan sonic game. It got changed to be its own game after all, but the thing is \u2013 it's still kind of Sonic game. All the characters are kind of the same idea-wise. Overall gameplay is pretty much the same. Yes, there is some kind of plot, but it's not really exciting, it just exists. Yes, there's great original soundtrack, but it's nothing really that stands out for me. But Freedom Planet managed to change all elements in a way it should be.

The thing is classic Sonic games aren't actually that good. It's not something to be ashamed of: just time passed and showed some flaws in the game. Original StH games have somewhat an identity crisis, they tend to stop player when they shouldn't, the rings HP system isn't really good. Freedom Planet gets everything that made people love old Sonic games \u2013 speed, multiple ways to complete a level, challenge and all that with great platforming levels \u2013 but also got rid of old flaws. FP doesn't stop player without being necessary and it doesn't feel out of place, separate "score" pickups, energy and HP didn't make everything harder to understand, but led to somewhat consistency.

In the end it feels kind of weird to say, but Freedom Planet is somehow the best Sonic game, but it's not either game about Sonic or game from Sonic Team. And it's still quite challenging, interesting to play and I didn't lose interest while replaying it again and again.
